From Ongar High Street (travelling towards Brentwood)

At Ongar Bridge, take the turning at the 'triangle', signed to Greensted and Toot Hill ('The Borough' which leads into Greensted Road), just before 'The Two Brewers'. Pass Greensted Church (on your right). Follow the road for 1.1 miles and turn left (signed Toot Hill) after the postbox (Toot Hill Road). Pass through Toot Hill (towards Epping) and continue on this road (Epping Road leading to New Road and then Banks Lane) for 2.2 miles. The driveway to Gaynes Park is on the right on a left-hand bend after a roadsign showing a horse and rider.

From Epping High Street

At the mini roundabout take 'Station Road' (signed to Epping Station), leading to Bower Hill then Mount Road. Follow the road for 2.1 miles (past signs for Sports Centre and Golf Course and the Merry Fiddler Pub on your right), go under the M11. Take the next turn left into Banks Lane and follow the road to the top of the hill, the driveway for Gaynes Park is on the left just after a traffic sign showing a rider and a horse and as the road bends right.

From (M25) M11 Junction 7

From Chelmsford (A414)

Follow A414 past Ongar, (straight over at the Four Wantz roundabout) past Blake Hall. Turn left at the Cross Roads (near Bovinger) marked Toot Hill (this is after a speed-triggered illuminated traffic warning sign. Follow signs for Toot Hill. Pass through Toot Hill (towards Epping) and continue on this road (Epping Road leading to New Road and then Banks Lane) for 2.2 miles. The driveway to Gaynes Park is on the right on a left-hand bend just after a sign showing a horse and rider.

From Brentwood (A128)

At Marden Ash turn right at the mini roundabout (signed for Ongar). Go down the hill and after the pedestrian crossing turn left - The Two Brewers will be on your immediate left. Pass Greensted Church (on your right). Follow the road for 1.1 miles and turn left (signed Toot Hill) after the postbox (Toot Hill Road). Pass through Toot Hill (towards Epping) and continue on this road (Epping Road leading to New Road and then Banks Lane) for 2.2 miles. The driveway to Gaynes Park is on the right on a left-hand bend after a roadsign showing a horse and rider.

Enjoy your visit!
